RACHEL ROVAY

Rachel Rovay was born in Israel in 1955 and arrived in Australia in 1970. She received a Diploma of Design & Fine Art at Monash University, Caulfield Campus, and a Graduate Diploma of Education from the State College of Victoria. Since 1979 she has participated in six solo exhibitions and twenty eight group exhibitions in Victoria and NSW. Her work is in the collections of the Jewish Museum of Australia and Footscray City Secondary College.

ARTIST'S STATEMENT

My paintings are a metaphor for my own experiences and my understanding of the human condition.

I draw from philosophies which are rooted in age old tales, myths and ancient rituals. There I find a powerful view of the inner and outer world with its own wealth of wisdom.
