HOLDSWORTH GALLERIES, established in 1969, is one of the oldest private galleries in Sydney. The gallery occupies its own building, comprising some 4800 square metres, the largest commercial gallery space in the Southern Hemisphere.

The premises offer expansive, flexible interior spaces, facilitating the creation of a unique atmosphere for each exhibition. Courtyards provide generous areas for the display of outdoor sculpture.

Holdsworth has taken pride in growing with some of Australia's most notable artists. Collectively, staff have more than 47 years of corporate and private sector experience.

The gallery's purpose remains to provide comprehensive, professional services to clients and to promote the arts in all their diversity to as wide an audience as possible.
